While COVID did interrupt our plans, it did not interrupt our mission, our passion, or our resolve. In fact, it's done just the opposite. Recent events have brought us closer to the communities we serve, provided more opportunities to extend God's love, and ignited a deeper passion within our organization and our partners. Yes, it's been challenging and difficult. But we're emerging stronger, more focused, and ready for a huge breakthrough!! Thank you for making all of this possible.
